Jack Walsh vs. Pat Kelly-Fighting for the Honor of Representing the First Ward in the Common Council.

Testimony of Witnesses Pro and Con-The Case, Given to the Council Without Argument, is Decided for Kelly by a Vote of S to 3.

The common council met last night to consider the contested election case between Jack Walsh and Pat Kelly, both claiming to have been chosen to represent the citizens of the first ward in the lower house of the city parliament. There were present Chairman Williamson and Councilmen Worsham, Dillard, Doherty, Bingham, Beasley, Hughes, Scheibler, Boyle, Britton, Bohan, Evans and Rourke, and City Attorney Walker. The contestants, Messrs. Kelly and Walsh, occupied seats at the reporter's table, each surrounded with their counsel and advanced to the contestants. visers. General Horrigan appeared for Mr. Kelly, and Mr. Wm. Carroll for Mr. Walsh. Judge P. M. Winters was also in the MR. G. A. DEMPF and wife, who have been in this city several days, left last night for their home in Louisville, Kentucky.

MESSRS. KENNEDY AND JOHN A. JONES,

Messrs. Kennedy and John A. Jones, ent, some discussion was had as to the manner of proceeding with the case. As it was announced that a large number of witnesse had been summoned to testify, it was thought best to take their statements by affidavit, to which end President Williamson (Council man Worsham in the chair) offered a resolu-tion to postpone the case until the affidavits could be taken. The resolution was adopted. The reading of the charges and specifica-tions was called for, which being done, coun-sel on both sides agreed that all the testi-mony needed could be taken in two hours, and if the resolution just passed could be reconsidered, they thought the case could be disposed of at that meeting. The resolution was reconsidered, and at half-past eight o'clock the first witness was called for the contestant. His present name was

WILLIAM ANDERSON, COLORED, and he didn't vote on election day because he was challenged at the polls. He told how it was done, and how the judges wanted him to tell about where he lived and what he did for

THOMAS JACKSON, COLORED, was next called and proceeded to tell how the man at the box took his ticket when he offered it, and put it in his pocket instead of depositing it in the ballot-box, the judges declaring that he had voted previously in that ward on that day. He was also closely questioned as to his citizenship, by the judges of the election and was finally arrested and the election, and was finally arrested and placed in the stationhouse. He was certain it was a judge who put his ticket in his pocket instead of the ballot-box, because he looked like he was the head of "de lection." Saw two others who looked like they were head men of the election; didn't recog-nize any more, because all white folks look so much alike it was hard to tell the difference.

The general business is profoundly affected, but in the interior there has been as yet no percept-

WILLIAM GOODWYN, COLORED, an excellent copy of Milt Barlow's "Old Black Joe," next took the stand, and began his story about how he was bulldozed on that day, and how he "got 'fused at de polls," which caused him to fail to satisfy the judges of the election as to where was his long, etc. He didn't know what replies he did make to interrogatories on election day, but he knowed he was "tellin" it jes like it was now." Mr. M'Coy, that "totes the mail," gave him the ticket he was trying to vote, but he failed to exercise his American citizenship because he "got 'fused."

James Carter, another of contestant's witnesses who had been subpensed, was called, but failed to pot in an appearance.

JUSTICE P. M. WINTERS was next placed on the stand in behalf of contestant. His testimony was principally regarding the citizenship of Henry Miller, who voted at the first ward polls that day. Miller was introduced to witness by John Colligan, as a citizen of Iowa, but did not know of his own knowledge whether he lived in Iowa or the first ward of Memphis. Justice Winters related how the vote of Anderson. colored (the first witness), had been challenged upon the allegation that he (Anderson) had voted before at that poll; how Anderson tried ond witness), was detected in the attempt to -A number of Mardi-Gras visitors still inger in the city.

one of the judges at the first ward polls, was called, and testified as to the conduct of the election on the day mentioned above. He related how, when proceeding with the count of the ballots, there were several found folded together in such a way as to give indubitable evidence of fraud, and such ballots were thrown out without regard to who they were for or against. Others were thrown out because they contained the names of two candidates for alderman, when but one should have been voted for. There were twelve votes thrown out altogether. Witness believed that the election was conducted as fairly as ever one was conducted in Mem-Witness remembered the rejection of the votes of the two negroes, who had testified previously, stating that their ballots were rejected because they could give no satisfactory statement as to their residence or

JACK WALSH, the contestant, next took the witness chair. The bulk of his testimony is summed up in his statement that he believed he was bulldozed on election day. He also testified that neither Miller nor Monthe day of the election, and had no business to be allowed to vote against him. This ended the testimony on the part of the contestant. The first witness called on the part of the defense was J. J. MURPHY.

man in the first ward, testified that he be lieved the election was conducted fairly and onestly; was present at the counting of the ballots, and recognized the propriety of cast-ing out the folded and other irregular ballots. PAT BURNS also testified to the fairness of the election, and said that Jack Walsh did not deport himself on that occasion as a quiet and peace-

At the conclusion of this witness's testi-mony, General Horrigan, for the defense, arose and submitted the case to the council on the merits of the testimony. Mr. Carroll said he had nothing more to say.

Councilman Beasley, from the sixth ward, moved that Mr. Kelly be declared duly elected councilman from the first ward, A motion to table was lost, only two voting in the affirmative.

Councilman Beasley's motion was carried rira-roce, seven against two. It being noticed that all the councilment did not vote, a division by ayes and noes was called for, with the following result (Couneilman Evans, colored, from the fifth ward being excused) Ayes.—Worsham, Dillard, Doherty, Bin nam, Beasley, Hughes, Scheibler and Wil Nays.-Britton, Bohan and Rourke-3.

The Diaz Government a Success-Lerdo and Iglesias will be Compelled to Acquiesce.

San Francisco, February 15.—A dispatch from San Diego says: "Colonel Macharro, late in command of the Twelfth Mexican cavalry, at Juralgo, has just arrived, via Yuma. Macharro was at first a partisan of Lerdo, but when the latter left the country he espoused the cause of Iglesias. He says everywhere in Durango the people have pro-nounced for Diaz. Macharro left there and went to Mazatlan and LaPaz, where he founthe same state of affairs. He then proceede to Guaymas, where, finding the people abou of Memphis; how often he had voted, etc.
Witness told that he came here with eight hundred others of his race in 1868; could read, and knew who he wanted to vote for.

THOMAS ACCESSARIANCE AND THO at Guaymas on the fifth instant, and found there Colonel Rongel and the admiral of the two Mexican war-vessels Democration and Mexico; they were expecting the arrival of General Mariscat on the seventh, when they were to put forth a formal declaration in favor of Diaz. At LaPaz, Lower California, everything was found in confusion; Political-Chief Maranda had been driven out of LaPaz by one J. Tharro, who had rallied a band of outlaws and installed himself in power. Maranda had left for Guayma in a small vessel, but had not reached that port when Colonel Macharro stopped there.

is now now no legitimate government in any part of the territory; the colonel says the whole interior of Mexico is now for Diaz, and the entire Pacific coast, except, perhaps, Acapulco, and the fact that both war vessels are the interior there has been as yet no perceptible effect on the masses of the people, who are about as well off as in the most peaceful times.
